

TLC Quiz - Tuesday 26th May 2020

1. What was the surname of the ancient Roman leader Julius?
2. Which movie features the song 'Happy'?
3. True or false: Antarctica is the coldest continent in the world?
4. What mode of transport is used on a railway track?
5. Are there stars and stripes, or stars and zigzags, on the flag of America?
6. Can you unscramble this word to reveal the name of an ocean: NADINI
7. What is the name of the Snow Queen in the Disney movie Frozen?
8. Which of the following is a type of tree: Silver Medal, Silver Birch, or Silver Cross?
9. Is AM used when referring to the time before or after midday?
10. Which ball should be potted last in a game of snooker?
11. Which boy band are Nathan, Max, Tom, Siva and Jay members of?
12. What is the coldest temperature: 15 °C, -10 °C, -5 °C?
13. When mixed together, which two colours create brown?
14. Can you name two countries that border Germany?
15. What is 9×11 ?

Answers will be available Tuesday 2nd June 2020

